

The Social Side

The week was notable socially, for the brilliant Frew reception in honor of two visiting guests, the Pollock whist party, the Howell reception of the Twentieth Century Girls, and the mid-summer Cotillion Club dance at the Wheeling Park Casino. All functions were beautifully planned. Golf, as usual, saw its devotees on both the Woodside and Highland links; tennis, boating and trolleying are being indulged in, but the seashore and mountains are gaining recruits daily and before long the summer quiet will be altogether in evidence, with no break through invitation or obligation. The coming week holds the Junior Cotillion dance on Friday night and a golf contest on the Highland links Saturday, which about cover the expected.

The large event of the week was the beautifully arranged reception Thursday evening, at the Frew home, on North Main street, complimentary to Miss Elizabeth Harden Taylor, of Bethany, and Miss Shively, of Kansas, the two visiting guests of Miss Gertrude Frew, the youngest daughter of the house. The rooms and halls were daintily decorated with flowers, and a large number of guests accepted the hospitality charmingly dispensed throughout the hours specified on the invitations.

The Cotillion Club had a delightful time at the Park last evening, the mid-summer dance being the occasion. Meeter's orchestra with a splendid arranged music programme and Casino caterers, aided the efforts of Prof. George Delbrugge to make the affair a complete success. Mrs. Joseph Gibbs, Mrs. William F. Stifel and Mrs. John D. Culbertson acted as chaperones for the young people. Mrs. Julius Pollock being decorated from a like duty by sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Pollock whist-omely entertained at duplicate whist Wednesday evening, at their home on North Chapline street.

Miss Frances J. Wheat, of North Main street, returned home, after a few days' stay at Atlantic City, where she had gone with her mother, Mrs. George K. Wheat, to be with Mr. Lawrence Wheat, of the "Mammoth" Aviators' company. On their arrival Mr. Wheat was found ill, necessitating removal to a New York hospital, accompanied by his mother. Late advice of Mr. Wheat's condition are very favorable.

The Junior Cotillion Club will have a large number of its friends at the Park Casino next Friday evening, through the courtesy of Prof. George M. Delbrugge. A delightful evening for all is assured.

Mrs. George K. McMeichen and maid, of Pleasant Valley, leave for Atlantic City, next Thursday. Mrs. McMeichen has been very ill for many months, and her complete recovery there is hoped. Her stay will be at "The Traymore."

Col. and Mrs. William H. Nave, of Bethany, accompanied by Mrs. Dawson, sister of the late Hon. A. W. Campbell, drove through the country to Wheeling, Thursday, taking dinner at the Fort Henry Club, and registering yesterday at the Stamm.

The many friends of Mrs. Glen, of Atlanta, Georgia, nee Miss Miriam Armstrong, only daughter of the late Rev. Armstrong, rector of St. Matthew's P. E. church, of this city, at one time, were deeply pained at the news of her death, which was received here early this week. Mrs. Glen was one of the most popular girls of the society set, during her stay in Wheeling, and deservedly so, because of her many unusual gifts and graces.

Mr. Giffen is finishing some magnificent work to be exhibited at the coming photographers' convention, to be held the end of this month. Among the artistic efforts will be beautiful pictures of Mrs. A. D. Mead, nee Miss Laura Caldwell, Miss Emily Ray Pollock, Miss Sara McLeure, two children of Mr. Giffen and Miss Goodwin, of Steubenville.

The Twentieth Century Girls were delightfully entertained with a progressive euchre party by Miss Mae Belle Howell, at the country residence of her parents, complimentary to Mrs. Thomas B. Howell and niece, Miss Oglesby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oglesby, all of Cleveland, but now at home in their summer residence on Bethany pike. Other out-of-town guests were Miss Shively and Mrs. Herren. The prize winners were Miss Louise Todd Baird, Miss Virginia Harrison, Mrs. A. D. Mead and Miss Laura Belle Caldwell.

Mrs. C. Russell Caldwell, of Staunton, Va., who, with her children, has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, of Pleasant Valley, left yesterday for a summer sojourn in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oglesby and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Howell, of Cleveland, are occupying the Howell homestead on Bethany pike, their new country residence.

Mrs. Jenkins, of Knoxville, Tenn., nee Mrs. Louise Cummins Thomas, formerly of this city, with her son, is the guest of Wheeling relatives.

and Mrs. Lewis Jordan, of Elm Grove, are at home, after a prolonged stay in the west.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Reed and son, of Twelfth street, are spending the summer at the Reed home, in West Alexander.

Mr. Alfred B. Carter and children, of the Island, are spending the summer at Deer Park, Md.

Col. Robert White, of Fourteenth street, sailed from New York for Paris, last Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence E. Sands, of the Island, with her young son, is at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth, of the Island, are visiting in Clarington, Ohio.

The family of Mr. Charles W. Franzheim is at Atlantic City.

Mr. William H. Hearne and family are at Atlantic City.

Col. Randolph Stalnaker is in the east.

"GRAND-PAP" HOAR

True to the Republican Party, Will Stand by McKinley—He Scores "Auntie" Winslow for Calling Him a Mud-Slinger.

WORCHESTER, Mass., July 13.—Senator George F. Hoar has issued a statement to the public in reply to the public letter by Erving Winslow, secretary of the New England Anti-Imperialist League. He says:

"I have within a few minutes read your letter published in the paper this morning in which, referring to my speech at Mansfield, you charge me with 'mud-slinging,' and with apostasy to the cause of liberty. I should not select you for a public correspondent on this or any other question usually. But as you addressed this letter to me I may as well say what I have to say in answer to these charges in the form of a letter to you as in any other way.

"You seem to me to be a sincere and well-meaning person, who, when deeply stirred in a great cause is apt to get extravagant in his expressions. I suppose this is your method of saying that you incline to differ from me as to my duty in regard to an important public question. At any rate I have the means of satisfying you that if 'apostasy' means a change of opinion or position, you are the person who has changed not I.

"What I said in my recent speech at Marshfield, both as to the matter of my continued confidence in the honesty of President McKinley, my purpose to support him, my belief that the triumph of justice, liberty and Republicanism is to be wrought out, if at all, through the agency of the Republican party.

What Was His Duty to Say. "You are now attacking me, I will not say insulting me, for saying what I have said all along what was my duty to say and do. And when I told you I meant to say and do exactly this thing, you wrote and spoke of me in the most extravagant terms of approbation and eulogy. I will select a few instances of many."

Senator Hoar then recalls his utterances on his departure for England last summer, his words in an interview on his return, his speech at the ratification meeting in Worcester last fall and his speech in the senate April 17, 1900, in all of which and especially the last he expressed himself on the same lines as at Marshfield. Continuing, he says: "Now you know when you wrote that that I intended to support President McKinley and that I had declared my continued confidence in him and my affection for him again and again, in spite of this difference on this one question. But as I say I repeated this whole thing at Marshfield. That is hardly more than a plagiarism from my speech in the senate of April 17, 1900. That speech you caused to be republished and franked all over the country. Indeed, I had a letter from you asking the cost of copying that speech and expressing your admiration of it, with its purpose to stand by President McKinley, uttering words of confidence in Bryan and all."

Senator Hoar quotes his letter written on May 1, 1900, and also quotes one of extravagant praise of him written by Winslow.

CARTER HARRISON MAD

Because Bryan Was Not Invited by the G. A. R. to Be Present at the Encampment.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The Post today says:

The fact that William J. Bryan has not been invited to attend the Grand Army Encampment, to be held here next month, was brought to the attention of Mayor Harrison today, and the mayor at once addressed a letter to the Encampment committee, pointing out the omission. Unless, at the meeting of the G. A. R., which President McKinley is certain to attend, the same attention is paid to the presidential candidates of both parties, Mayor Harrison said the Encampment would pass without the official recognition of the city.

GREAT WESTERN SHOPS

At St. Paul Destroyed by Fire—Loss, $100,000.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 13.—Fire which broke out in the Chicago Great Western shops, at South Park, this afternoon, has destroyed seven buildings, and was still burning at 3 p. m.

The shops of the railroad company have been moved to Oelwein, Iowa, and the buildings were used as store houses.

All the buildings formerly occupied by the Great Western shop were destroyed. Its spread was then checked. The loss, it is estimated, will be from $100,000 to $150,000. The buildings were filled with shingles.

RAN A RACE.

Train Puts on Steam to Avoid a Fine for Failing to Deliver the Mails.

GRAFTON, W. Va., July 13.—In an effort to escape fine for failing to deliver mails on time, the Baltimore & Ohio made an extraordinary run yesterday.

The mail from New York for the west was delayed east of Philadelphia. The time for the departure of the regular train came, and it was decided to let it go, and carry the mail in a special train. The regular train was three hours ahead of the mail at Philadelphia, and the mail cars, attached to one of the best engines, started in pursuit. When the mail train passed here it was fifteen minutes behind the regular train, and overtook it at Parkersburg, where the mail cars were attached to the regular train, and proceeded on west with it.

MARRIED THE BEST MAN.

Girl Renounces Her Old Love and the Betrothed Makes a Good Trade.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., July 13.—Miss Hannah Meyer came all the way from Austria to Montana to wed Christopher Smith, and then wedded the best man, Joseph Kunz. Schmidt made $50 out of the transaction. This happened in Stockert, a coal mining town near Great Falls.

Miss Meyer's change of mind came at the altar. The wedding guests had assembled, when she announced that she did not love Schmidt enough to marry him, but preferred Kunz. While the guests waited the bridegroom and the best man negotiated. Kunz agreed to pay Schmidt $50, and the ceremony proceeded with the positions of the two reversed.

Girls Clung in Night Attire.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A fire in the fashionable section of Brooklyn at 2 o'clock this morning caused a panic. Flames broke out in the cafe of Frederick Wilkins and a dense smoke filled the rooms of the other occupants of the Wilkins building. The cry of fire awakened the boarders in several apartment houses, and soon the fire escapes were filled with half-dressed women. Over the Wilkins cafe eight girls in night attire clung to the stone coping, and were rescued by the firemen. Three firemen were overcome by smoke.

The damage to the cafe amounted to $1,500.

Expect to Clear the Country.

WITPORT, Transvaal, July 13.—General Clery's column, which has moved easterly, is now camping here. During the march the mounted infantry engaged 200 Boers, shelling a ridge occupied by the burghers.

It is anticipated that this movement will clear the country from Standerton to Heidelberg, as the troops found but one remaining laager, from which the Boers retired hurriedly.

The "Aunties" Heard From.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—The Anti-Imperialist League of this city will endeavor to influence the national executive committee to call a conference of all the leagues to determine the stand that will be taken by the anti-imperialists in the coming campaign. The local league in its resolutions favoring the conference, recommends that the conference be attended by delegates representing all the anti-imperialists throughout the country.

Chain Works Destroyed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 13.—The Garland Chain Works, at Rankin, Pa., were destroyed by fire at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Loss, $100,000. The fire was caused by the explosion of a tank of chemicals, but no one was injured.

THE TYRANT CUPID.

Say what you will, Cupid is somewhat of a tyrant after all. He waves his lash of government over the head of every woman who elects him to rule her life. No woman can choose the happiness and honor of widowhood and motherhood without being subject also to his pains and penalties.

But no woman ought to suffer as most do from those ailments and weaknesses which are due to her peculiarly delicate and susceptible organism. Every woman ought to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure these unnatural and debilitating troubles. It cures them absolutely, completely, permanently. It contains no alcohol to create a craving for stimulants.

"It is with heart-felt gratitude that I must tell you what your medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. A. F. Crenshaw, of Fannettsville, Sumter Co., N. Y. "After consulting you about my case I took your medicine and it cured me of my weakness. I was all run down. I suffered with sick headache, pain in the back and bearing down pains. I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was then able to take care of my house. My health is better than it has been for three years. I do not know how to thank you for the kind advice you gave so cheerfully."

This grand "Prescription" has accomplished the same beneficent purpose for thousands of women in every corner of this broad land. It imparts health, strength and endurance to the special organism of womanhood and gives tonic vitality to the entire nervous system. Its marvelous properties are more fully described in one chapter of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., a splendid thousand-page illustrated volume which will be sent free paper-bound for 21 one-cent stamps (pay the cost of mailing only), or cloth-bound for 31 stamps.
